STATE OF LHRC – Chairperson Roni Todd-Marino

- Amplify voices of minority communities and vulnerable populations in the City of Lambertville – and create opportunity for community-building
- 3rd Annual We Are One celebration – continued success and community building
- Partnered with Fisherman's Mark at Know Your Rights event
- Supported Fisherman's Mark ID program
- Senior community served with pizza party and get to know their neighbors
- Hibernia apartments in crisis – educate regarding rights and how to advocate for themselves
- For students – piloted financial assistance for sports and enrichment activities
- For students – made connection to the Gay/Straight Alliance group
- Mental Health– exploring Mental Health support groups in Flemington and how to expand them down into Lambertville
- HRC – looking to increase our score by expanding local activities

OLD BUSINESS

- SENIOR COMMUNITY – Bambi Kuhl and Emily Carone
 - Council-Led Event:
 - Hibernia - Pizza & Movie Party – 2nd event in early Feb (1st in October 2019) – set the dates up for all of 2020
 - Heritage Village – new events manager, early talks for 1st pizza night
 - Resident Council – how can we help them get one set up, help them understand their rights – solid next steps – Beth Asaro will talk to Megan Warner or Julia Taylor to see if they have access to contacts/experts to assist and educate Hibernia residents to form a council.
 - MEALS ON WHEELS – asked to leave Hibernia, looking for a new home – Regina runs the program (Churches, firehouse, VFW, American Legion, Kalmia Club, etc...) – Roni Todd-Marino will interface with Regina to give her more suggestions.
 - MAYOR CHALLENGE: assist City in educating seniors regarding reduced cost programs – how to do?
- LATINX COMMUNITY – Roni Todd Marino, David Gardiner, Effie Castro
 - FYI - Fisherman's Mark has a new director
 - Partner Event: Know Your Rights - Event owned by Fisherman's Mark – next one being set up asap once new Director is settled in
 - SIGNATURE EVENT: We Are One BIG picnic update - Sun 6/7/20
 - TRANSLATION services availability for city – company called "VOICE" – live 'FaceTime' like interface – status pending, Mayor, we would be 1st in the state to have this technology
- STUDENT/YOUTH COMMUNITY – Filomena Hengst

- Gay Straight Alliance at SHRHS – Beth/Mary Jane attend regularly
 - Suggestion: invite Mayor in future
 - Offer city property for SHRHS Gender Equality Club
- Expand Gay/Straight Alliance to middle school students – Filomena will attempt to address with BOE on this topic – allowing for expansion without a middle school student stepping up personally
- LGBTQ COMMUNITY – Beth Asaro
 - SIGNATURE EVENT: Gay Pride Parade
 - Investigate future plans of Phillips Barber/Hunterdon Healthcare network – what new options/services will they have? What will expansion look like? Lt. Brown is inviting the office manager to attend our next LHRC meeting in February.
- MENTAL HEALTH COMMUNITY – John Woods, Lt. Bob Brown and friend of council Zach Berliner
 - STIGMA FREE COMMUNITY – proclamation draft will come to City Council (Todd-Marino)
 - Investigate future plans of Phillips Barber/Hunterdon Healthcare network – what new options/services will they have?
- GENERAL UPDATES
